

The Cohen Insider

As February begins, the initial momentum of the new year transitions into a critical period of regulatory action. With major compliance deadlines fast approaching—most notably the February 16th requirements for updated Notices of Privacy Practices and Part 2 regulations—this month demands a focused look at your organization's internal protocols and patient communications.

At Cohen Healthcare Law Group, we specialize in helping our partners navigate these specific windows of change. Whether you are finalizing your data privacy updates or auditing your substance use disorder record-keeping, our team is committed to ensuring your operations are both compliant and resilient.

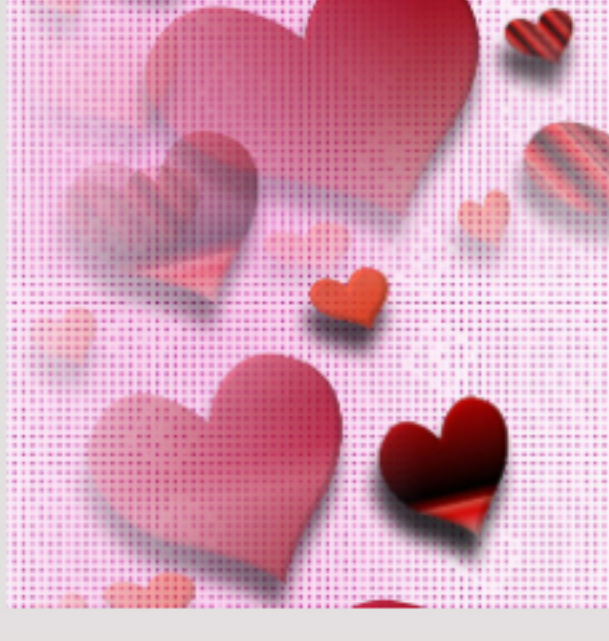

We hope this February edition provides the "final check" you need to cross the mid-month finish line with confidence and legal peace of mind.

How California AB 1501 Affects Physician Assistants

California AB 1501 is a new law that directly affects how Physician Assistants (PAs) practice, tightening supervision rules, reshaping scope-of-practice requirements, and increasing compliance expectations for healthcare [...]

Did you know?

February is the shortest month, named for Roman purification rites, unique for its 28/29 days. It's also known as America's snowiest month, the Southern Hemisphere's hottest, and has odd quirks like being the only month that can skip a full moon.

Featured Video

In today's video, we're going to look at some rather esoteric rules of physician supervision of nurses and figure out how an aesthetic medical practice by the nurse can navigate, if it can, some restrictive health care legal rules.

The Legal Labcoat Podcast

Cohen Healthcare Law Group

At Cohen Healthcare Law Group, we know that the distance between a brilliant healthcare concept and a compliant, scalable business is often paved with complex regulatory questions.

To help you move faster and with more certainty, we are thrilled to announce the launch of our new podcast: The Legal Labcoat.

Why "The Legal Labcoat"? We designed this series to pull back the curtain on the structural and regulatory frameworks that define the modern healthcare landscape. Whether you are a telemedicine founder, an MSO operator, or a clinical entrepreneur, this podcast is built for you.

What to Expect:

- Foundational Clarity: We break down the basic structural and regulatory concepts you need to know before you even jump on a discovery call.
- Roadmaps, Not Riddles: Learn exactly what happens during our Legal Strategy Session (LSS) and how to prepare your business data for maximum outcome.
- Avatar-Agnostic Expertise: While we use real-world examples from across the industry, the legal principles we discuss apply to the full spectrum of healthcare ventures.

The Premiere: Wednesday, February 11th Our first full episode drops February 11, 2026 at Noon. We will enter your next consultation with us already ahead of the curve.
