

The Cohen Insider

As we transition into the month of March, we reach a natural midpoint in the first half of the year—a time to evaluate the progress of your strategic goals and refine your approach for the quarters ahead.

At Cohen Healthcare Law Group, we remain committed to providing the steady legal counsel and high-level strategy our clients rely on to navigate a complex and shifting landscape. Our mission is to ensure that your focus remains where it belongs: on innovation and excellence within your field.

We hope this month’s newsletter provides valuable perspectives to help you lead with clarity and continue your momentum through the spring season.

Did you know?

In the early Roman calendar, March (or Martius) was the first month of the calendar year. As March brought the first day of spring with the vernal equinox, it was the start of new beginnings.

March became the third month when January and February, which were added to the end of the Roman calendar around 700 BCE, instead became the first and second months around 450 BCE.
